THE FEDERATION OF MINERS

Flat River Miners Take Note of the Persecution of Their Comrades in Colorado aud Idaho.

EDITOY TIMES: The recent secret- ances in his hands: ive arrest of Moyer, Haywood, St John and Pettibone in Colorado is one funds on hand. of the most outrageous acts of the kind that has come to pass in these kind that has come to pass in these later days of predatory wealth against labor. men who are at the bead of it are hidand protected by the power of their $201 60 unexpended. dullars. Everyone knows how difficuit it is to fight the power of money. These respectable gentlemen buy up the writers for the press, control the mischinery of the law and close up every avenue leading to their detection, and strut around over the country, clothed in broad-clotn and fine linen. And the big-eyed world says it is impossible for such respectable men as C. B. Weimer presented treasurer's others that might be mentioned of just who was appointed supervisor. as much respectability as the big mine | Charles Ebrecht made his settlement temptible he acted, and how the Legisscated him instead of declaring Adams same to the Governor. elected Governor, as he was by the people of the State. And it will be Asbury filed plans, specifications and further remembered how the Supreme profile for bill at Terre Blue bridge. Court transcended all constitutional authority and supported the action of the Legislature in holding that Me-Donald was the lawful Governor against the will of the people. This demonstrated the power of money and its methods, and there can be no doubt to anyone who is familiar with the conduct and nefarious practices of the Standard Oil Trust, the Beef Trust, and in this instance the Capitalistic Mining Trust of the West, that is now making such a desperate fight against the Western Federation of Miners to destroy that organization, simply because the wage earner, which it seeks to protect, is seeking an eighthour law in those States and better pay for the protection of himself and family.

And the most discouraging aspect of the whole situation is, that the law officers, who under their oaths are sworn to and ought to protect the people, on the contrary, prostitute their positions and corruptly stand by those free-booters of the West, who have been trying for the last twenty-live years to own it by force and fraud, abetted by the power of money, regardless of right. We have no doubt that Moyer and others will be freed in time, but things have come to a pretty pass when men can be arrested at night by Pinkertons, and in irons hurried away from home, on suspicion, to a distant state without even being allowed to say, good-by to there wive and children, that such parties arrested might have some connection with the murder of an arbitrary time serving Governor. The people of the country should rise up in their might, and so arouse public conscience and opinion against such conduct as to force an investigation by the Judicial Department of Washington into such miserable conduct on the part of mine owners, who have been and are now guilty of barbarities that would be abhorred in brutal Russia. Talk of lawlessness! The worst form of lawlessness is the contemptuous disregard of law by the trust magnates of all degrees. Watch this affair, my comrades.
